

This sample letter was developed using plain language principles. The letter is intended to be easy to read, understand, and use.

Termination of Doctor-Patient Relationship: Behavioral Issue – SAMPLE

Certified Mail: Return Receipt

Date

Patient's Name

Address

City, State, Zip

Dear [Patient's Name],

I will no longer be your doctor because of the way you behaved in our office on [insert date(s)]. [Insert a clear and simple description of the unwanted behavior(s) on the date(s) mentioned]. Your behavior upset staff members and other patients and disrupted the office. You must find a new doctor to make sure your medical care continues.

Steps you need to take to make sure your medical care continues:

- Decide who your new doctor will be. For help finding a new doctor, call:
 - Your health insurance company.
 - OR [insert name and phone number of local medical society].
- Call the office at [insert phone number] to let us know who your new doctor will be.
- Make sure your new doctor gets a copy of your medical record. Complete the enclosed Permission Form to Send Medical Records.
 - Mail the completed form to [insert address]. We will send your medical record to your new doctor when we get this form.
 - OR call the office at [insert phone number] to set a time for you to drop off the completed form and pick up a copy of your medical record.

OPTION 1: Normal Notification Period

I will treat you for the next 30 days, until [date: day, month, year]. If you have not found a new doctor by [insert same date as above], you will need to go to your local hospital for care.

OPTION 2: Immediate Dismissal

I will no longer treat you. If you do not find a new doctor, you will need to go to your local hospital for care.

I urge you to find a new doctor as soon as you can. If you have any questions or concerns, you may call me at [insert number] between [insert available hours].

Sincerely,

[Doctor's Name]

COPYRIGHTED

This document is a work product of Coverys' Risk Management Department. This information is intended to provide general guidelines for risk management. It is not intended and should not be construed as legal or medical advice. Your organization should add to and modify this tool to address the compliance standards and regulations applicable in your state or organization.

Any links included in this document are being provided as a convenience and for informational purposes only; they are not intended and should not be construed as legal or medical advice. Coverys Risk Management bears no responsibility for the accuracy, legality or content of the external site or for that of subsequent links. Contact the external site for answers to questions regarding its content.

Updated: December 2019